LA FAVELA MEXICAN

About

La Favela is a restaurant that embraces a completely crazy and totally magical atmosphere. From its original concept to its vintage design, La Favela draws inspiration from various corners of the world, creating an eclectic and captivating dining experience.

Each corner of the restaurant is heavily decorated, creating a visual feast that transports you to different cultures and eras. Graffiti and stencil art cover the walls, adding a touch of urban energy to the ambiance. The concept behind La Favela takes cues from the lush jungles of Bali and Indonesia, the vibrant favelas of Rio de Janeiro, and the underground bars and clubs of London and New York from the early 90s.

NOOK

About

Nook is a hidden gem nestled amidst the peaceful and breathtakingly lush rice fields of Bali. The decor at Nook is nothing short of stunning, with wooden tables and benches that exude rustic charm, rattan chairs adding a touch of elegance, and linen pillows inviting you to relax and unwind. The woven straw light fixtures hanging delicately under bougainvillea create a warm and enchanting ambiance, immersing you in a captivating dining experience.

With its undeniable Tulum vibe, Nook offers a unique twist on the Balinese dining scene. Instead of the blue Caribbean Sea, you'll be treated to breathtaking vistas of vibrant green rice fields.

MAMA SAN

About

The name “Mama San” pays homage to the old traditions of South East Asian gentlemen’s drinking establishments. In those establishments, Mama San was a term used to denote a woman in a supervisory role, overseeing the operations and ensuring the guests’ satisfaction. At Mama San, it channels that same level of attentive service and create an environment where every guest feels taken care of.

The kitchen serves up a diverse range of Southeast Asian flavors, taking inspiration from the vibrant street food scenes and traditional culinary heritage of the region.

From fragrant curries to aromatic stir-fries, our menu showcases the rich and bold flavors that make Southeast Asian cuisine so beloved.
