NATHON WALKING STREET

On Saturdays, the old pier of Nathon transforms into a bustling food market serving the island's most flavorful local cuisine. It becomes a gastronomic haven where locals, traveling couples, and families, as well as backpackers, flock together to feast on authentic Thai street food. Among the many night markets happening on different corners of the island, Nathon Walking Street is definitely the Sami Street market experience that foodies and adventurous gastronomes visiting the island shouldn't miss.

Location:

Nathon
