LAWSON

One of the biggest store brands in Japan, with numerous branches all over the country, is also present in Niseko. Lawson is a convenience store with products and services that provide tourists in Niseko with basic travel essentials as well as additional dining and entertainment options. The store is also popular for its array of original products, such as its delicious and healthy meals that are loved by both locals and tourists. Lawson currently has two branches that can cater to tourists in Niseko - the Hirafu and Midtown Niseko stores.
