NISEKO HOT SPRING IKOINO YUYADO IROHA

About

Relax your body and soul in the natural hot spring bath “Bihada-no-Yu,” which literally means “Beautiful skin bath.” From the large glass windows in the large public bath, which is light and dry, you can see the gorgeous scenery. Also, bed baths and sauna help refresh a tired body. There are chairs for the bath to make bathing easier and safer for small children and elderly people.

The quality of the outdoor bath at Iko Village contains 248mg of silicic acid, which is said to be effective in beautifying the skin when water contains more than 50mg, so great effects can be expected! The spring water also contains sodium and hydrogen carbonate, a rarity in Japan. The spring water makes the skin's surface soft and clears away the dirt in the sebum. After your bath, you will feel refreshed, which is why the spring is also called "Seiryō-no-yu," which means "cool and refreshing bath."
